

JUSTIN MACH

ENGLISH TEACHER

Sapporo, Hokkaido,
Japan

(+81) 80-7499-2233

6JustinMach@gmail.com

PROFILE

Energetic individual with native-level fluency in both English and Japanese. Enthusiastic about providing a thorough understanding of English while making it applicable and fun for everyone involved.

LANGUAGES

English - Native
Speaker from Toronto, Canada

Japanese - Full
Professional
Proficiency
(Japanese
Language
Proficiency Test N1)

KEY SKILLS

- Excellent Oral and Written Communication Skills
- Strong and energetic group leader
- Cultural Awareness
- Strong time management skills

EDUCATION

Hokkaido University (2020 – 2024)

- School of Humanities and Human Sciences - Linguistics and Literature
- Bachelor of Arts
- Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Recipient

Tokyo University of Foreign Studies (2019-2020)

- Japanese Language Center
- Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Recipient

Pierre Elliott Trudeau High School (2014-2018)

Ontario, Canada

- OSSD, Royal Canadian Legion History Award of Excellence (bursary), Creative Writing Club Founder, Ontario Scholar

EXPERIENCE

English Teacher (Feb. 2023 – Present)

ESL Eikaiwa (ESL 英会話) (Via Zoom)

- Teaches groups of children English speaking, listening, vocabulary, and writing
- Prepares engaging learning activities geared for each student's specific learning needs
- Assigns homework according to each student's schedule to help them finish textbooks
- Maintains consistent contact with parents and colleagues in English and Japanese
- Utilizes online tools such as zoom, powerpoint, and whiteboard-software for lessons

English Teacher (July 2019 – Present)

Hello-Sensei Tutor (Sapporo, Japan)

- Tutors Japanese adults/children and adjusts lesson plans according to student needs
- Creates a fun environment where students are unafraid to speak English
- Uses the strong, fun relationship built with students/parents to increase student motivation
- Prepares students for major English tests including TOEFL and IELTS